

How to Plan A Treeture Performance

It is important to explain that Treetures are guides to help children learn about the importance of trees to our world. As magical as the story of Treetures is, there is no greater magic than nature.

Narrator should read script before meeting the group.

www.treetures.com/EventPlanning/Script.htm

If possible, children should already have materials, names of characters. etc. before the event.

<http://www.treetures.com/Teachers/Teacher1.html>

The first "Story of Treetures" can be read to the children at the event.

<http://www.treetures.com/Story.html>

Narrator follows script and Treetures enter with magic words.

Treetures whisper, pantomime and wave at kids.

Narrator asks what trees do for us. Kids can participate.

Treetures clap and wave when they like answers.

Tree being planted should be in place.